For start of each paragraph within the abstract indent at least 5 spaces. There is single spacing between lines within the abstract. Except for the start of a paragraph all other lines are left-justified. If you use abbreviations within the abstract write out fully what the abbreviation is, for example: as soon as possible (ASAP). If you use a symbol or Greek letter write out fully what word(s) the symbol or Greek letter is replacing, for example intrinsic permeability (k), angle of azimuth ( $\theta$ ). For units, use either metric unit or English unit with metric unit in brackets following the English value, for example: 35 feet (11 meters). Do not include any references, tables or figures within your abstract.

Key words: units, spacing, abbreviations, symbols

We will reply that we have received your email and abstract as soon as possible within about one week. If you do not receive a reply (an email) in one week, then please contact us and resubmit. Abstracts will be printed out for the Symposia. So, please check for any typing, spelling or grammar etc. errors to avoid any errors. If you want to modify your abstract, submit a new version of the abstract and state clearly in the email that you want to replace previously submitted abstract. Deadline for a replacement abstract is March 27, 2013.
